Student Entry Sheet - Page 1

During your visit to the Mummies exhibition, you learned that the people of ancient Egypt and ancient Peru created mummies. Now you will write an essay in which you will describe two mummies that you observed in the exhibition.

First, write an introduction to your essay. Then, describe a mummy from ancient Peru. Your description should include both what it looks like on the outside and what its scan shows about the inside. Include a labeled drawing of the mummy with a caption. Next, describe a mummy from ancient Egypt. Your description should include both what it looks like on the outside and what its scan shows about the inside. Include a labeled drawing of the mummy with a caption. Lastly, write a concluding paragraph.

In the Museum of Natural History we saw mummies in bundles and some were even wrapped up. The mummies we saw were from Egypt and Peru and the mummies were very different from each other.

In the Peru section we saw two mummies. One of the mummies was made in 1400-1400. It was a bundle with string and looked ragged, dirty and rusty, and the scan showed bodies of children and the parts of the mummies. The other mummy was green, black and broken. The scan showed a lady who was so close with her baby and she looked
In the Egypt section we chose two mummies and one of the mummies was broken and especially at the end of its feet and looks soft and has many stains. The scan showed the organs and her bones. The other mummy is colorful and has many patterns and has many symbols. The scan shows a man and some teeth and hair and many bones. This is what the outside and the inside of the mummy shows.

In conclusion at the Museum of Natural History we saw the Peru and Egyptian mummies and they had some things alike.
Student Entry Sheet - Page 3

Like they were both old and rusty, mummy's and they were both broken. These are the Peruvian and Egyptian mummies we saw at the Natural Museum of History.
Caption:
Two bodies of children who were covered with rope
Caption:
This is a Egyptian mummy case which was so pretty and colorful.