

Collection Study Grants Application

PURPOSE

Collection Study Grants provide financial assistance to enable pre-doctoral and recent post-doctoral investigators to study the scientific collections at the American Museum of Natural History. These collections represent the fields in the divisions of Anthropology, Invertebrate Zoology, Physical Sciences, Paleontology, and Vertebrate Zoology. The visit must be arranged through and sponsored by an American Museum of Natural History curator. Projects of four days or longer are encouraged.

Collection study grants are awarded on a one-time basis. Persons in zoology and paleozoology requiring a greater amount of funding should apply to one of the following:

The Frank M. Chapman Memorial Fund (supports research in Ornithology)

The Lerner-Gray Fund for Marine Research

The Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Fund (supports research in North American fauna)

This program is not available to investigators within daily commuting range of the American Museum of Natural History (i.e. “Tri-State” area).
