EXPERIENCE KOREA: INNOVATIONS IN ART AND CULTURE

Aimee Lee/Stefan Hagen

Today at the Museum, you have the opportunity to experience an ever-changing Korea and to explore how the country's past enriches its present. Together, we will celebrate how Korean traditional arts inform Korean art and culture today and also how Korea has blended indigenous characteristics with unique flourishes in innovative cross-cultural ways.

PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE

Soobin Sunwoo

Noon

Vongku Pak Korean Drum and Dance Troupe opens with the power of Samulnori (contemporary percussion music derived from farmers' music). Adorned in the multicolored sangmo (a beautiful hat with a long ribbon), Pak mesmerizes with a virtuosic Seoljanggu, a Korean hour-glass drum and dance solo to “call the world to Korea.”

HOST PAUL YEON LEE, Award-Winning Composer, Korea Music Foundation

12:45 pm Paul Yeon Lee, joined by Tae-seog Yoon (daegeum-bamboo transverse flute) and Kate Bowling (western flute) performs Lee's music Sanjo (산조) for flute solo and then the composer takes to the piano in “Scattered Wind” (흩어진 바람), which incorporates many traditional Korean and western musical styles.

1:15 pm P'ansori is the tradition of Korean story-singing and is traditionally performed by one singer with a barrel drum. Experience the art of Chan E. Park, Professor of Korean language, literature and performance studies at Ohio State University, in a participatory, bilingual (English and Korean) p'ansori piece, “Song of Everyday Chunhyang.”

1–1:30 pm | 2–2:30 pm | 3–3:30 pm
Drawing inspiration from both the Manhattan melting pot experience and her deep Korean cultural roots, master storyteller, artist and filmmaker Maria Yoon, unravels Korean myths, legends and folk tales in the Black Hole Theater.

2 pm “Korea 1900: A Time Capsule in 20 Objects” Museum Curator of Asian Ethnology and Anthropology Division Chair Laurel Kendall presents 20 objects from the Museum collections as a precious time capsule of a Korea that is difficult to imagine today.

3 pm The Korean Traditional Music and Dance Institute of New York (KTMDI) with colorful traditional dances including the Buchaechum (Floral Fan Dance) and the Gyobang Salpuri (Scarf Dance), culminates with the sounds of the gayageum (a zither instrument with 12 strings).

3:30 pm I LOVE DANCE, founded by MJ Choi, has a K-Pop (Korean Pop) focus but more than 80 percent of its members are non-Korean. This has been a testament to the growing popularity of the K-Pop culture, as well as the unifying characteristic of dance as an art form.

3:45 pm RAFFLE WINNER of a gift certificate to Kristalbelli announced.

4 pm WORLD PREMIERE featuring Grace Song with Darion Smith and Mei Yamanaka. Song was born in Daegu, South Korea and raised in Southern California. Her new work, “Name Change,” explores the concept of being given a heritage that transcends the boundaries of culture and racial background.

A Q&A with Song will follow, moderated by Laurel Kendall.

5 pm CLOSING CEREMONY
