

STUDENT CONFERENCE ON CONSERVATION SCIENCE - NEW YORK

OCTOBER 15-17, 2014

at the

AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Are you pursuing or considering a career in the field of conservation science?

Come meet and exchange ideas with the next generation of conservation science professionals at the 2014 Student Conference on Conservation Science-New York!

At SCCS-NY, you can:

- Connect with peers and leading conservation professionals in science, policy, academia, and management from around the world
- Explore future opportunities at the Resource & Career Fair
- Develop relationships that lead to meaningful collaborations and inspire further research
- Attend workshops on a range of engaging conservation topics

Registration Closes September 20, 2014!

Should I attend?

If you are currently a graduate student, recent post-doctoral fellow, or early career professional in any conservation related course of study or research - including ecology, geology, sociology, economics, and resource management - we invite you to attend the Student Conference on Conservation Science - New York.
