

media references

NOVA SERIES (PBS)

---

“Exploring Antarctica.”

60 min. 1 tape. Item A1263. Nova.
$14.96.

Chronicles exploration of the continent from ancient times through the race to the Pole of Amundsen and Scott. 800.328.7271.

“Alone on the Ice.”

60 min. 1 tape. Item A3441. Nova.
$19.98.

Tells the story of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd’s lonely sojourn during the Antarctica winter night in 1934 camped in his Advance Base 123 miles from the expedition home base, Little America. Byrd almost dies of carbon monoxide poisoning. 800.328.7271.

FILMS FOR HUMANITIES & SCIENCES

---

“The Antarctic Paradox.”

24 min. BVL 2200. $149 (rent $75).

Tells story of how scientists search for clues to illness among Antarctica’s wildlife and how physicists search for clues on the origin of the Universe from telescopes at the South Pole.

“The End of the Earth: Antarctica.”

26 min. BVL 5721. $79.95.

Focuses upon geological phenomena as well as Antarctica’s best know animal: the penguin. (800.257.5126; F for HS PO Box 2053, Princeton, NJ 08543-2053; 609.275.3767)

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

---

“Life in the Freezer.”

1998. Hosted by David Attenborough.
ASIN 0792250990. $19.99.

Life of seals, penguins, whales and sea birds filmed mostly on sub-Antarctic island of South Georgia (where Shackleton landed after long sea journey) and Palmer Peninsula. (from Amazon.com)

OF HISTORIC IMPORTANCE

---

“South: Ernest Shackleton and the Endurance Expedition.”

1919. $26.99. ASIN 6305444501.

Being story filmed by Frank Hurley of Shackleton’s ship Endurance being crushed in the Weddell Sea in 1915. Exceptional photography. (from Amazon.com)

“90 degrees South: With Scott to Antarctica.”

Herbert G. Ponting’s film of Scott’s last expedition (1911–13) with footage of Scott’s over-glacier sledging operations toward the Pole. Milestone Film and Video, 275 West 96th Street, New York, NY 10025. 212.865.7449.

“With Byrd at the South Pole: The Story of Little America.”

How Byrd built the community of Scientists for his 1928–30 expedition during which he flew over the South Pole. Milestone Film and Video, 275 West 96th Street, New York, NY 10025. 212.865.7449.