

HOUSING RESOURCES FOR RGGGS STUDENTS, POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW, AND OTHERS

International House of New York (<http://www.ihouse-nyc.org/>) is a graduate student and academic trainee residence open to U.S. and foreign citizens offering well-priced private dormitory-style bedrooms, suites and apartments and many amenities.

I-House for RGGGS PhD Students: RGGGS currently has arrangements assuring housing availability at International House for Comparative Biology Ph.D. Program students for their first two years. The housing plans and costs to students are available at their web site. Admission is by application, and the application is available at:

<http://www.ihouse-nyc.org/s/707/internal.aspx?sid=707&gid=1&pgid=303>

(Be patient; this application may take a few minutes to download.)

I-House for AMNH Postdocs: AMNH Postdoctoral Fellow Trainees are eligible for housing at the I-House residence through our long-standing partnership with I-House. Admission is by application; use the same application noted above to apply.

Craigslist (<http://www.craigslist.com/>) lists apartments and apartment shares.

Living Apartment Guide (<http://www.aptlivingguide.com/>) an online rental search engine.

Rent Apartments Online (<http://www.rentaptonline.com/>) an online rental search engine.

Zero Fee NYC (<http://www.zerofeenyc.com/>) an online rental search engine.

How to Rent in NYC (<http://www.howtorentinnyc.com/>) an online rental search engine.

Zillow (<http://www.zillow.com/>) an online rental search engine.

Educational Housing Services (<http://www.studenthousing.org/>) a not-for-profit housing provider that caters exclusively to the lifestyle of students and interns living in NYC.

Hotel Alexander, Student Housing

(http://www.hotelalexandernyc.com/student_housing.html) a discount boutique extended-stay hotel located on the Upper West Side of New York City.

Pink Dorms (<http://pinkdorms.com/index.html>) accommodations for female students, interns, recent grads, and extended stay travelers staying in New York a minimum of thirty days

AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY
Richard Gilder Graduate School

The following were named “The best apartment-hunting websites and apps” by Time Out NY [published online, January 5, 2015 – full article: <http://www.timeout.com/newyork/style-design/the-best-apartment-hunting-websites-and-apps>]

WEBSITES, ONLINE SEARCH ENGINES:

Move, Inc. (<http://www.move.com/> and <http://www.realtor.com/>)

Naked Apartments (<https://www.nakedapartments.com/>)

New York Bits (<https://www.nybits.com/>)

PadMapper (<https://www.padmapper.com/>)

Street Easy (<http://streeteasy.com/>)

Trulia (<https://www.trulia.com/>)

Urban Edge (<https://urbanedge.apartments/>)

APP:

MyNewPlace

NEWSLETTER:

Listings Project

<https://www.listingsproject.com/>

Please note: If you plan to rent an apartment, realtors and landlords will request proof of your AMNH status and funding; you may request an official letter from the RGGGS Assistant Director of Student Affairs and Fellowships (assistantdirector-rggs@amnh.org). Please do so with as much lead time as possible.

This list is provided solely for your convenience. Other than International House of New York, with whom we have an agreement that housing will be made available to first and second year Comparative Biology Ph.D. students, we make no promises or assurances about the availability or conditions of properties listed on the websites, apps, and newsletters we have provided here.