Procedures Governing Access and Use of AMNH Archives

Access

The researcher must complete the Request for Access to AMNH Archives describing the subject of research and the purpose of inquiry. The researcher will fill out a separate request for each research project. Requests to access AMNH Archives are evaluated by in terms of the seriousness and relevance of the request.

The researcher agrees to indemnify and hold harmless AMNH, its officers and employees, from and against all claims and actions arising out of the researcher's use of AMNH Archives.

Researchers may encounter records that contain private or restricted information about individuals or organizations. This information may not be conveyed by the researcher to anyone by any means.

Photography

Hand-held photography of AMNH assets, without tripod or flash, is permitted at the Library's discretion for research purposes only and is allowed as a convenience for scholars.

Permission to access or photograph material located in AMNH Archives does not give the researcher permission to reproduce or publish the contents thereof. This material must not be transferred to another individual or institution without the written permission from the Library.

Use

Permission to publish, broadcast, exhibit or sell duplicated material must be requested in writing to the Library documenting the use in context. Researchers wishing to quote from, or publish in full, any documents in the AMNH Archives must request and secure permission from the Library in advance. If AMNH does not own the copyright to the material, it cannot grant permission to copy or publish the material and therefore the researcher must secure permission from the author or their heirs.

Deposit

In the interest of ongoing research, we require that a copy of any work quoting from or reproducing AMNH Archives be sent for deposit in the Library collection and that the work acknowledge the Library using our preferred citation.

I have read and agree to abide by the terms of the conditions above. I understand that my failure to follow these terms may result in the termination of my research privileges.
